 - B. God _____ descendants of Abraham and David during the Ezra/Nehemiah era so that Jesus, the Messiah, would come to earth (less than 500 years later).
 - C. God _____ Jesus in the flesh to dwell among sinful humanity.

- II. The King’s _____ and _____
 - A. The crowds followed Jesus because of His authoritative _____ and miraculous _____.
 - B. The _____ presented Himself to the nation of Israel as the promised King or Messiah.

- III. The King’s _____ and _____
 - A. Jesus _____ God’s law constantly and completely by living sinlessly.
 - B. Jesus _____ the work assigned by His Father.

- IV. The King’s _____
 - A. If you _____ the word of the cross (consider it foolishness), you remain dead in sin and have no hope of enjoying the reign of King Jesus.
 - B. If you _____ the word of the cross (consider it the power of God), He forgives your sin, gives you Jesus’ righteousness, and establishes the reign of King Jesus in your life.
